Volunteer's Gathering

Kukup Trip - 12th & 13th January 2002

It is a bright & sunny Saturday afternoon. We gathered at World Trade Center and eagerly set to embark.

There were about 21 of us participating in this annual event. Amongst us, new and old, young and old as well. We seemed to interact very well – just like old friends.

We are led by our “Dow Yu” Miss Sally Gui of York Hill. She seems familiar there, just like back to her home town. She is native there.

The whole journey was always accompanied with laughter – free & relaxed. We board on the ferry with the entire basement cabin to ourselves. It took us about one hour to reach the port of Kukup.

We settled ourselves in the available five rooms chalet. We were greeted with delicious mee hoon & curry. This was followed up by Chinese New Year Meeting. Then thereafter free & easy.

Approaching dusk, we had seafood BBQ – a sumptuous one.

The entire event came to a climax: - Games led by Jessica Low of York Hill. Firstly, the sums games & then the treasure hunt. We were divided into 2 groups. We were very supporting in doing “4 feet”. The most unforgettable – Eddie Chun’s snake imitation on mattress which drew much laughters.

When it was 12 mid night, some slept, some sang Karaoke and some playing mahjong.

In the next morning, we toured along the fish rearing areas – interesting. This was followed by sumptuous seafood lunch at the rest rant. Again, free & easy shopping. We headed back to the chalet and getting ready to go home. We realized that the ferry would only come at 4 pm. Therefore, we had a coffee break till the ferry came. HOME - SWEET - HOME.
